

Figure 1: FALCON™ gravity image showing the various deposits at Santo Domingo and the location of recent drill holes described in this news release.

The Santo Domingo Sur and Iris deposits host a combined tonnage of 240Mt of copper-iron ore and Estrellita contains approximately 32Mt (tonnages from resource report in 2007). An initial resource calculation for Iris Norte and an updated resource report for the other deposits are planned.