

Figure 2. Plan view map showing the location of the proposed new surface pit developments (Roby pushback and Sheriff), containing the majority of the current surface Mineral Reserves, and the top priority exploration target areas in relation to surface infrastructure and major, mapped faults.

