

Figure 1: 3D model showing the Los Frailes (center) and Aznalcóllar (right) deposits at depth. Historical drill intercepts indicate potential for a third deposit on the property (left) that would require additional delineation drilling. The historical resources noted above are entirely within the Los Frailes deposit.