

The first wheel loader from Caterpillar, model 994, was assembled on the Kaunisvaara site in mid-June. The second loader will be delivered at the end of the third quarter of 2013.

At the process plant in Kaunisvaara, work is currently focused on installation of crushers, mills, magnetic separators and electrical works. Adjacent to this building, work is ongoing to build the analytical and testing laboratory which will ensure that the product delivered to customer contains the high-quality magnetite that customers are expecting.

First sections of a Metso Vertimill capable of handling feed sizes up to 6 mm and grinding to a product less than 20 microns.

The drilling rig, SmartROC 65, was shipped to Kaunisvaara in June 2012.

According to schedule, sections of the large dumpers, model Cat 793, are arriving in Kaunisvaara.

Two normal trucks beside the large wheel loader that will be operating at the mining site.

An aerial view of the Tapuli mine, where the removal of the overburden proceeding according to schedule. Activities are ramping up to start the production in Q4 2012.