

These results show the presence of a potential mineralized system, located over 1.5 km southeast of the Fayolle Deposit.

