

Figure 2: Shows a representative northeast-southwest long-section (looking southeast) through the Kiseljak and Yellow Creek areas with all drill hole intersections (0.15% CuEq cut off for Kiseljak and 0.30% CuEq cut off for Yellow Creek) and summary geology based on Dunav’s understanding to date. Note that copper-gold mineralization remains open at depth across a significant majority of the cross-section.