

Soil Survey Results: Trace Element Associations with Gold Anomalism Identical to those at the Huilcollo System

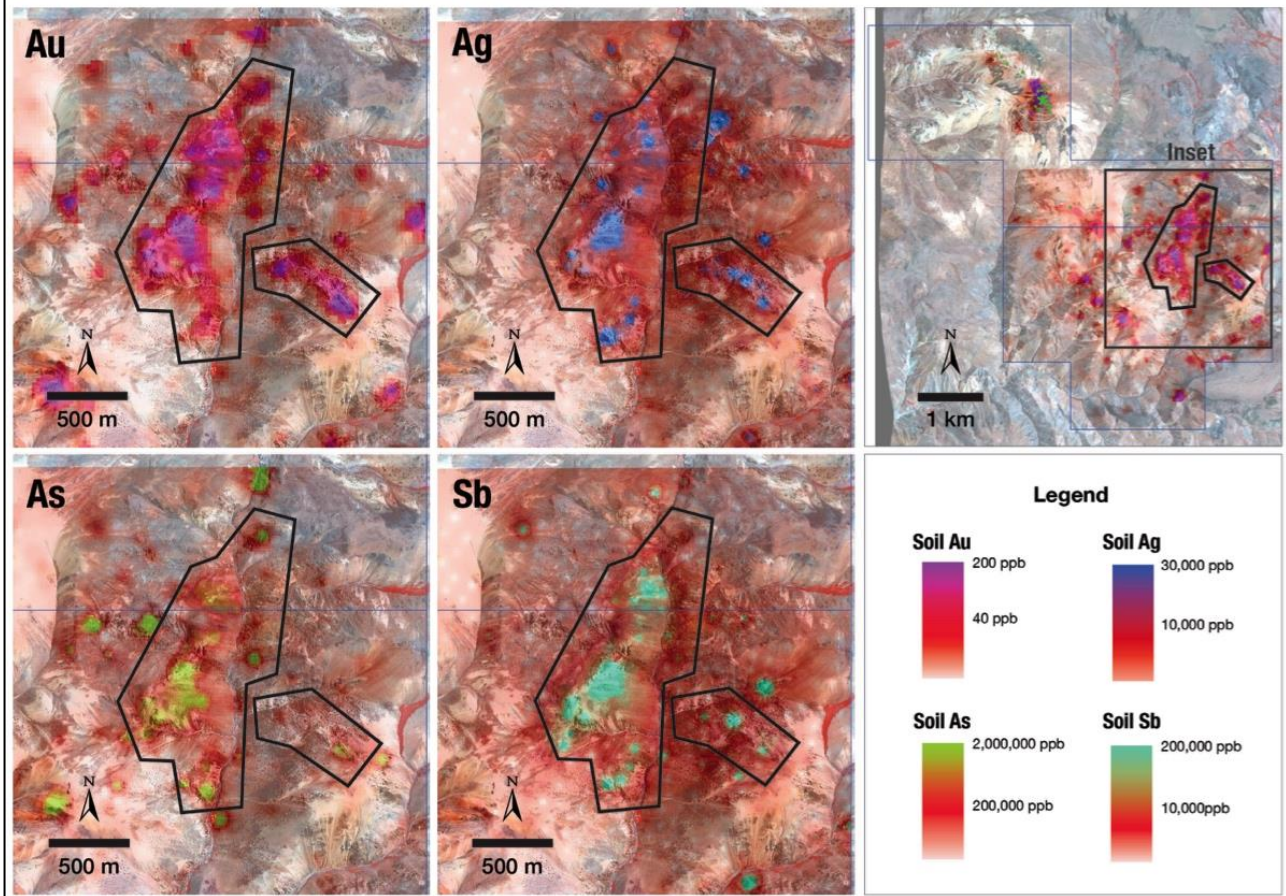

Figure 2: Illustrates elevated silver, arsenic, and antimony trace element signatures of the newly identified gold in soils anomalies. These trace element associations are very typical of productive high sulphidation oxide gold deposits globally.