

Figure 1: Geophysical Targets on Preliminary Magnetic Image. Lucero Geophysical Anomaly (T1) labelled together with 13 new geophysical targets (T2 to T14). Major mineral deposits in Ecuador are labelled by name. Known, productive fault zones are represented with chequered pattern. New geophysical targets are located in a narrow north-south zone, coincident with the known extensions of the Fruta Del Norte fault zone in Peru.