

The primary mineralized structures are best developed in Block B and to the east of Block C.