

Figure 10 - Chargeability anomalies are evident on the Northwest portion of the survey area, corresponding to the low SP response and the various low resistivity masses in that section of the survey area