

The diagram above illustrates the drill holes (marked in black) that define the existing resource estimate. Red drill holes are completed, and are expected to add further ounces in an additional 2010 estimate which will form the basis of the PEA. Significantly, results from newly drilled zones E and F will be added. The yellow outline defines the currently identified near-surface oxide and transition mineralised area.