

Figure 4 – Shows locations and levels of TREO in surface alluvium samples and locations of recent scout drilling of alluvium. Note light brown colored alluvial fans being shed off the outcrop areas. These alluvial fans are very extensive and will be the subject of further drilling and sampling for REE.