

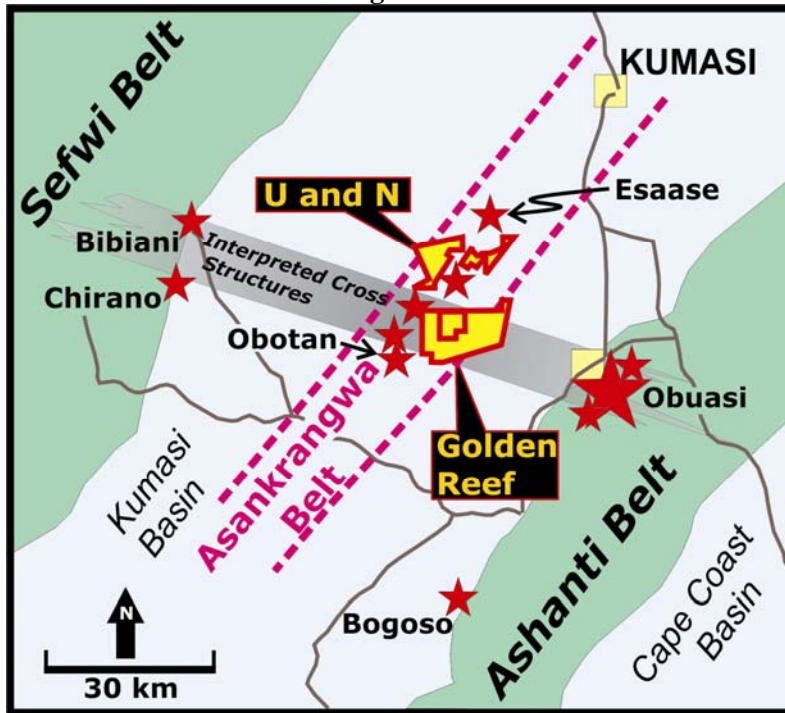

Figure 2.

The intersection of interpreted Birimian cross structures with Ashanti, Sefwi, and Asankrangwa Belt shears appears to be a key feature in the localization of gold mineralization for this region.