

Figure 2: Plan map showing the surface projection of the Tajo Vein System and outlining the section of the mineralized system where the Apogee drilling has focused on developing a resource in the upper part of the vein system. The long axis of the blue outline is approximately 450 meters.