

Figure 2: Revised analysis of the airborne geophysical responses in the Greyhound area. Red dots are strongest anomalies, caused by iron formation in some cases. Yellow and turquoise dots are more discreet anomalies, probably caused by sulfide bodies.

B 8010

F 613 692 3234