

Figure 3: Details of geophysical data for the Aura Lake area; the blue line represents the BIF, which is adjacent to the Zn-Ag samples noted in Figure 1. The red and yellow lines are more typical of massive sulfide – type anomalies, and for example have coincident copper anomalies in surface samples (white, yellow and turquoise dots) which also contain coincident high grade zinc and silver anomalies. The higher-