

Anuri – New High Grade Boulder Train 2016

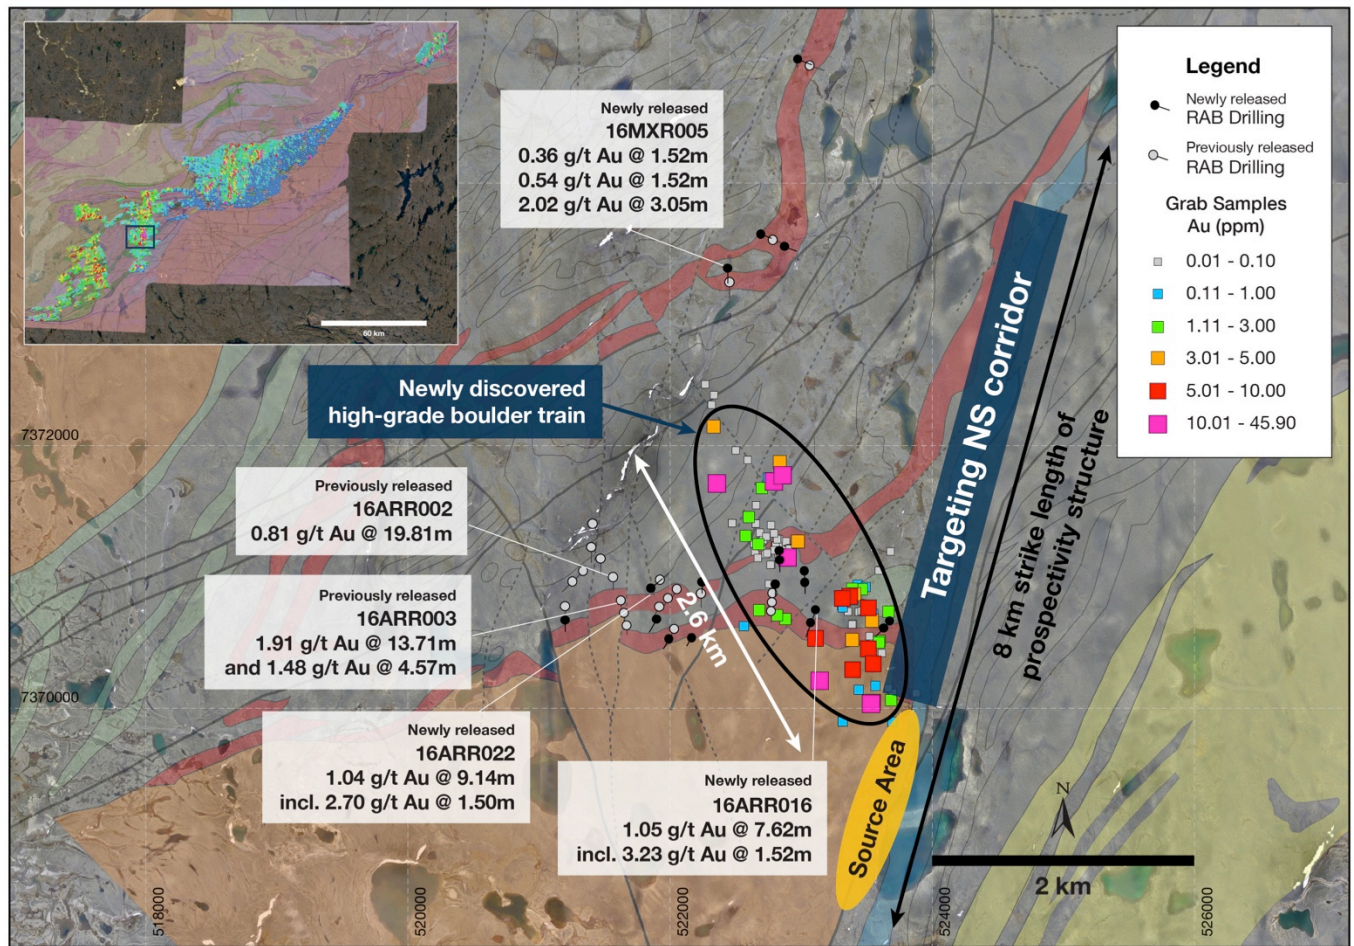

Figure 2: Illustrates the newly discovered high-grade gold boulder train from the Anuri prospect. Importantly the source area located on a large scale north-south trending fault zone has not been drill tested. The total length of the prospective structure based on 2015 till results and 2016 boulder sampling is approximately 8 km in length.