

Current Thierry "Tooth" Program Model

Depicted in orange above is internal modeling of the area focused on in this program, with the trace of the completed drillholes. The results of the blue drillholes formed the exploration plan update as press released April 27, 2011, the green drillhole traces were not included in that update.