

Figure 1: NW Athabasca Project Gravity Survey. The blue colours represent gravity “lows” indicating potential alteration envelopes around potential uranium mineralization. The proposed 2013 winter work areas are circled in black. * A 1.5 million pound historical uranium resource grading 0.6% U_3O_8 for the Maurice Bay deposit, as reported by Saskatchewan Industry and Resources, Miscellaneous Report 2003-7 has not been calculated or classified under the specifications of National Instrument 43-101 and should not be relied upon.