

Figure 1: FALCON^{TEM} gravity image showing the Iris Norte zone. The mineralized zone is approximately 100-200m wide with a strike length of approximately 1,000m. The deposit remains open at the centre of the gravity anomaly to the southwest and to the north. Drill holes are widely spaced.