

Figure 1: Drill rig collared 40 metres northeast from mineralization at Jons Pit Prospect. Note large scale of artisanal workings centred on deformed quartz veins and veinlets with limonitic quartz-iron carbonate selvage.

Figure 2: View northwest along strike of the mineralization (pale orange and yellow) at Jons Pit. The first diamond drill hole is collared on the bench where the excavator arm can be seen (top right).