

Figure 6. Integrated exploration target for Roughrider East, where mineralization is open to the south-southwest along the Midwest trend as defined by resistivity data. Base map projects resistivity data at a 267 metre depth slice.