

Infants can suffocate in this position against the caregiver's body or the sling.

Keep the infant's head above the sling and away from the caregiver's body.

If an infant is in the chin to chest position in a sling, suffocation can occur.