

Interfor unveiled its playhouse at the PNE in Vancouver. Made of wood from forests around the Province and milled at Interfor mills, the playhouse was one of seven constructed as part of the Canfor PlayHouse Challenge to raise money for Habitat for Humanity affiliates in BC and to bring years of fun for children. It will eventually be relocated to Ronald McDonald House in Vancouver.

