

Figure 1: Plan showing Summer 2009 holes completed to date (143-195) and those for which assays are reported in this news release. The focus of the summer program is the expansion of the deposit in the East and Northeast areas with preliminary testing of the Far East. The results reported here confirm the continuity of significant mineralization over a strike length of 1000 metres in the Northeast sector.