

Worthless in the Eyes of the Law!

British Columbia Needs a
Wrongful Death Act

Why are the lives of our children,
seniors and people with disabilities
worthless in the eyes of the law?

THE REASON: In British Columbia, only the lives of income-earners are valued if they are the victims of wrongful death. And, for the wrongdoers, it is cheaper for them to kill someone than to injure.

THE SOLUTION: Our outdated law, from 1846, needs to be changed!

British Columbia needs a Wrongful Death Act.
It is time for the BC Government to put families first.
Accountability. Compassion. Today.

Join the family representatives of the Wrongful Death Law Reform Group as they gather to renew their call for a Wrongful Death Act...

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2011
2:00 PM

Robson Street - backsteps of the Vancouver Art Gallery

Every life has value. British Columbia needs new legislation to ensure the lives of children, seniors and people with disabilities are no longer worthless in the eyes of the law!

www.wrongfuldeathreform.wordpress.com

www.ProtectingJusticeforBC.org

