

Figure 1 – Location of Accori North Targets in the Kurupung Batholith

Uranium radiometric data from the airborne geophysics survey carried out by U308 Corp. over the Kurupung Batholith shows the location of the principal uranium targets. The Accori North A, Accori North B and Accori North C structures are highlighted in yellow and located near the south-western margin of the batholith.