

Figure 1: Location of all drillholes completed within the Croteau Est alteration corridor. The assay results reported in this press release are from holes with pink collar symbols. The holes with outstanding assay results are represented by green collar symbols, and are located to the east and south west of CRO12-48.

