

Figure 1. Long section, looking approximately North, showing the location of reported diamond drillholes relative to 3D model of existing workings and known orebodies (in red).

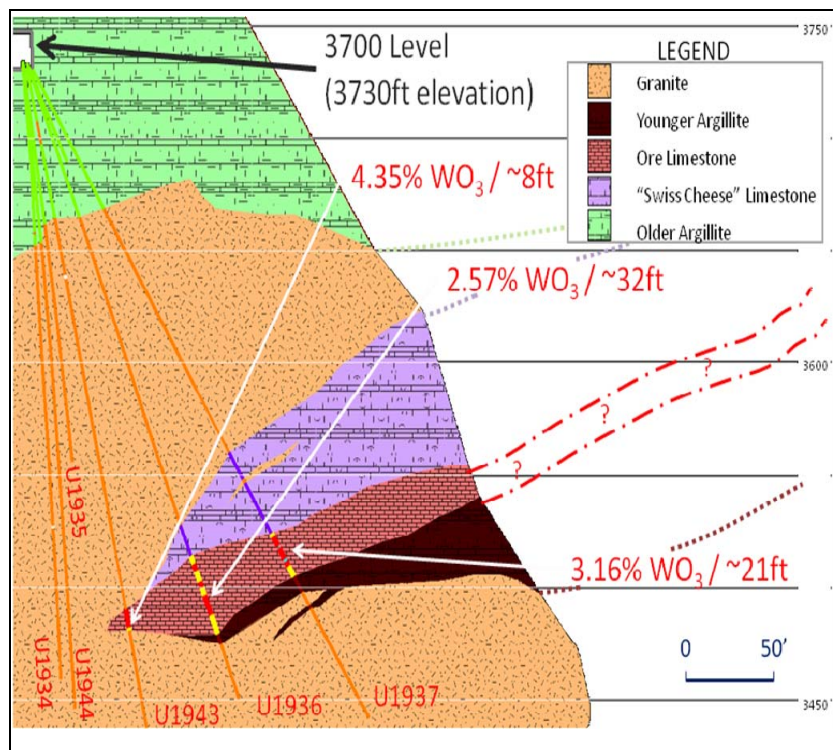

Figure 2. Non-orthogonal cross-section, looking approximately North, of new diamond drill holes. Holes U1944, U1934 and U1935 (leftside ) all ended in granite.