

Figure 6 - View northwards across an outcrop of rather coarser than average indurated detrital ironstone at 755080E 6679580N on the east slope of the Shank Anomaly area. The lower edge of the DID is in places marked by a few metres high scarp, which is faintly visible further away in the upper right hand sector of the frame.