

Torq 2017 Till Sampling

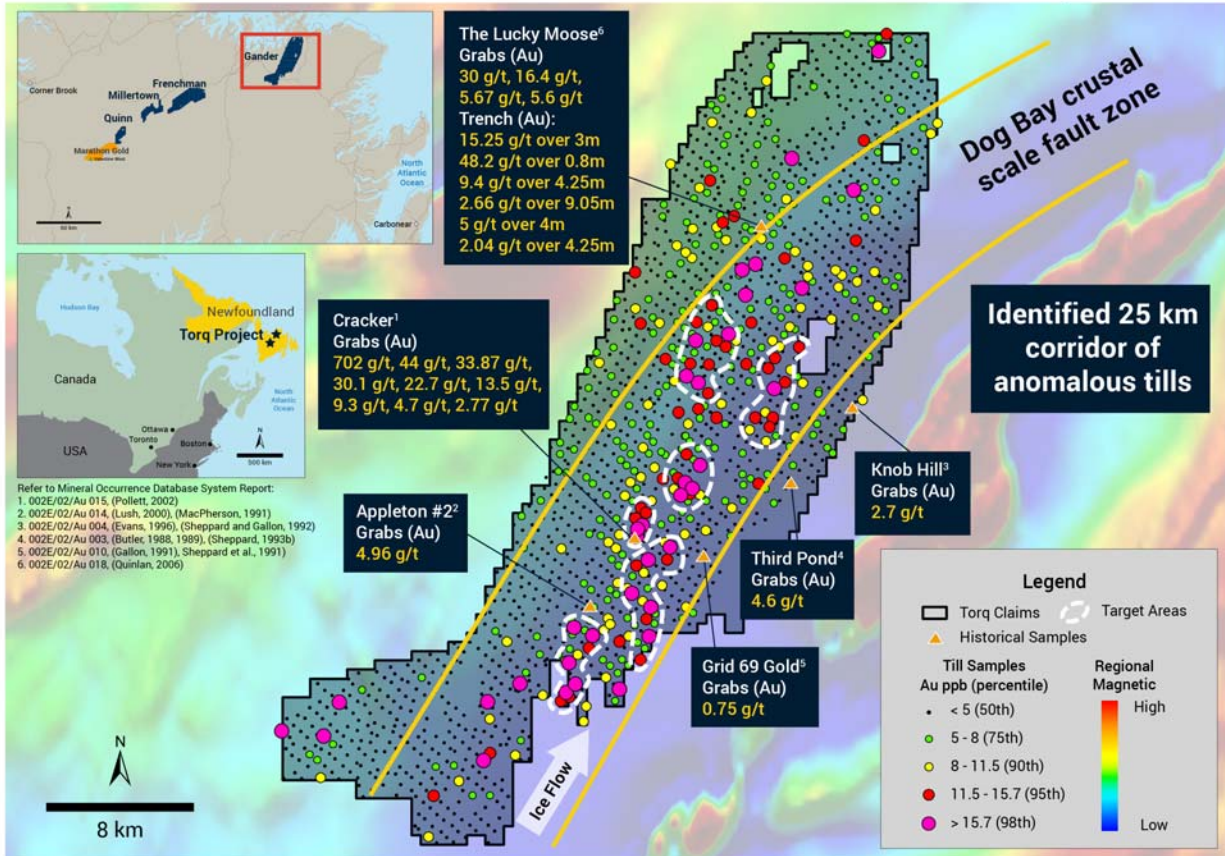

Figure 1: Highlights 6 well defined till anomalies within a 25 km long corridor situated along the Dog Bay fault zone. These anomalies represent target areas that Torq will advance towards drill stage with a program of in-fill till sampling, ground geophysics and trenching slated to begin in early October.