

Figure 1. Map showing the ground scintillometer radiometric anomaly at Aricheng South with the location of Phase I, II and previously reported Phase III drill holes labelled in black while the group of 16 Phase III drill holes, whose results are reported here, are labelled in red.