

Figure 1. Uranium radiometric data from the airborne geophysics survey carried out by U3O8 Corp. over the Kurupung Batholith showing the location of the principal uranium targets. Accori North C is located near the southwest margin of the batholith, while the Aricheng structures are located near the eastern margin of the batholith.