

Figure 1. Map showing the ground scintillometer radiometric anomaly at Aricheng South with the location of Phase I and II drill holes labelled in black and the first group of Phase III drill holes, results of which are reported here, labelled in red.